

InCyder: Summer 2009

Departmental Announcements

ELPS (Iowa State University), The Academy for Educational Development (AED) and the Education Commission of the States (ECS) have joined forces to reconstitute the Community College Policy Center, a national policy clearinghouse that will provide critical support to state and federal policymakers and community college leaders as a one-stop resource for information and policy research focused on how states can fully leverage their community colleges as engines of economic development and educational opportunity.

Media Mentions

Scott McLeod, Associate Professor of Educational Administration was featured in a Converge Magazine story. Read the story by visiting:

<http://www.convergemag.com/edtech/Educators-Click-with-Social-Networking.htm>

Scott McLeod, Associate Professor of Educational Administration, was interviewed for a story in the Fort Dodge Messenger. See the story by visiting

<http://www.messengernews.net/page/content.detail/id/516341.html>

Scott McLeod was featured in Edutopia. See more by visiting:

<http://www.edutopia.org/curator-student-learning>

Faculty Awards, Honors & Recognitions

Soko Starobin, Assistant Professor of Higher Education was recently invited to serve as a Panel Reviewer for the National Science Foundation Office of International Science and Engineering (OD/OISE)

John Nash, Associate Professor of Educational Administration was granted faculty status in ISU's Human Computer Interaction Program (HCI). HCI is the study of the relationship between humans and computers. Over 70 faculty members at ISU from more than 20 departments serve on the graduate faculty of the HCI program. For more information visit: <http://www.hci.iastate.edu/People/faculty.php>

Scott McLeod, Associate Professor of Educational Administration was as featured speaker at the high-powered World Technology Summit and Awards. For more information visit: <http://www.wtn.net/summit2009/speakers.html>

Linda Serra Hagedorn, Professor of Higher Education and Director of RISE, was elected President of the Association for the Study of Higher Education (ASHE). She will serve a three-year term with ASHE, one of the preeminent associations for scholarly work in higher education. See the announcement by visiting: <http://www.ashe.ws/images/ASHE%20Summer%202009%20newsletter.pdf>

Linda Serra Hagedorn, Professor of Higher Education and Director of RISE, was recently appointed to two board: (1) The Alabama College Transfer Advising Corp, and (2) The National Black Male College Achievement Study.

Scott McLeod, Associate Professor of Educational Administration was as featured speaker at the Iowa Association of Business and Industry's Annual Convention. See more by visiting http://www.iowaabi.org/en/convention_2009/speakers/ or <http://www.dangerouslyirrelevant.org/abi.html>

Professors of Higher Education, Flo Hamrick, Nancy Evans, and John Schuh announced that their new book Foundations of Student Affairs Practice: How Philosophy, Theory, and Research Strengthen Educational Outcomes, is being translated into Chinese.

Steve Porter, Associate Professor of Research and Evaluation was recently appointed as principal member of the Education Systems and Broad Reform standing grant review panel of the Institute for Education Sciences.

Student Awards, Honors & Recognitions