

ELPS Promotion and Tenure Committee

The Promotion and Tenure Committee of the Department of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies is composed of the Department Chair and tenured faculty members.

The purpose of the Committee is to review the dossier of faculty members being considered for promotion or tenure or both. The Committee meets when there is a faculty member being considered.