

Higher Education Graduate Student Organization

What is HEGSO?

HEGSO is a student organization comprised of graduate students in the Educational Leadership and Policy Studies (ELPS) Department.

The purpose of HEGSO is to support all members by:

- Complementing the academic program by providing professional development opportunities
- Organizing recruitment efforts for prospective students and providing an orientation for new students
- Serving as a liaison between students and faculty and between students and administration
- Promoting moral through social programs and volunteer opportunities

HEGSO Annual Programs
Careers in Student Affairs
Interview Days
Mentor Program
Graduation Reception

Other Programs
Social Justice-Roundtables
Winter Potluck
Mock Interviews
Resume Critiques
Student Panels
Hilton Fundraising

Leadership in HEGSO

President

- Schedule and preside at all meetings
- Direct the activities and operations of the organization
- Work closely with the adviser
- Coordinate Graduation and Mentor Program

VP-Finance

- Maintain budget and financial records, coordinate fundraising

VP-Membership

- Coordinate Interview Days and new student orientation
- Serve as liaison for incoming and prospective students

VP-Public Relations

- Record meeting minutes, coordinate website, contact members and keep them informed

VP-Professional Development

- Organize programs and events that promote professional development such as guest speakers, resume workshops, etc.
- Plan Careers in Student Affairs event

VP-Social

- Plan social engagements and volunteer opportunities

VP-Social Justice

- Update members on latest current events & research
- Coordinate events and programs relating to social justice issues